

The Planning Commission approved a sign application for the “For Sale” sign at Wheeler on the Bay (the signs the real estate broker wanted to use exceeded our sign area for a temporary sign). We then went through the “utilities and sign” portion of the proposed Development Code and approved them.